The God revealed to us in the pages of scripture is a welcoming and inclusive God who directs us to love one another. We seek to remove all the barriers that keep us from that love. Let us now confess all that separates us from each other and from God. Let us pray together the Prayer of Confession...

Jesus said, Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your soul. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light. Let us rest in God’s mercy as we pray the Prayer of Confession together...

The proof of God’s amazing love is this: that Christ died for us that we might live. Because we have faith in Christ, we dare to approach God with the truth of our lives. Let us pray together the Prayer of Confession....

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Read one of the following)

The good news is that Christ calls us to new life. In Christ we are freed to begin again and again, and to live in joy. Friends, believe the good news of the gospel. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

When we face ourselves and God with the awareness of our need, God gives us grace to grow and courage to continue the journey. Hear the good news: those who are in Christ are a new creation; the old has passed away and behold, the new has come. Thanks be to God!

Friends, God hears our prayers. God loves and values us, forgives what is past, and calls us to new discipleship. Thank be to God!

God's mercy is from everlasting to everlasting. Through Jesus, we are freed to love one another, to forgive one another and to be forgiven. We are given new life. With full and free hearts, let us answer God's gift with our praise, devotion and service.

God knows our soul's longings and with the tenderest love, pours out mercy, compassion and forgiveness on us. Through Christ we are given new and abundant life. Thanks be to God!

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION (Choose one that fits with your scripture reading and with the theme(s) of the service—indicated by the prayers, for example.)

God, source of all light
by your Word, you give light to the soul.
Pour out on us
the spirit of wisdom and understanding,
that our hearts and minds may be opened
to know your truth and your way.
Amen.

Shine within our hearts, loving God, the pure light
of your divine knowledge,
and open the eyes of our minds and hearts
that we may understand and embrace the message of the Scripture.
Amen.

Gracious God,
we do not live by bread alone.
Let the heavenly food of the scripture
we are about to hear nourish us today in the ways of eternal life,
through Jesus Christ, the bread of heaven.
Amen

God of mercy,
you promised never to break your covenant with us.
In the midst of the multitude of words in our daily lives,
speak your eternal Word to us,
that we may respond to your gracious promises
with faithfulness, service and love.
Amen.

Living God,
help us so to hear your Word
that we may truly understand;
that, understanding, we may believe;
and believing,
we may follow your way in all faithfulness,
seeking your honor and glory in all that we do.
Amen.
